Kenſington, June 27.

THE following Addreſs from the Town of Winchelſea, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Francis Daſhwood, Kt. and Bart. and Robert Briſtow, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Freemen and Inhabitants of Your Ancient and Loyal Town of Winchelſea, in the County of Suſſex.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE Glorious Succeſſes wherewith it has pleaſed the Divine Providence to bleſs Your Majeſty's Arms, in Conjunction with thoſe of Your Allies, having put it into Your Power to give France a Peace on ſafe and honourable Terms, We beg Leave, with all Humility, to Congratulate Your Majeſty on this happy Occaſion, not in the leaſt doubting but the Peace You have out of Your great Goodneſs and Wiſdom accompliſh'd will in the Event be equally Glorious to Your Majeſty, Beneficial to Your Subjects, and Safe to all Europe.

Permit us alſo to render to Your Majeſty the utmoſt of our Acknowledgments for the great Care You have taken to render Secure the Proteſtant Succeſſion (as Eſtabliſh'd by the Acts of Settlement) in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, on which the Religion, Liberty and Welfare of Your People ſo entirely depend.

May all Attempts to divide Your Majeſty and that Auguſt Family, prove vain and ineffectual; may Your Majeſty long enjoy the Bleſſings and Comforts of Peace; and may Your Reign be long and proſperous, Your Subjects united in Loyalty and Affection, is and ſhall be the conſtant Prayers of Your Majeſty's Dutiful and Faithful Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Blechingly, was preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Blechingly, in the County of Surrey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Faithful Subjects, humbly beg Leave to return our moſt Dutiful Thanks to Your Majeſty, for Your great Condeſcenſion in Communicating to Your Parliament the happy Concluſion of ſo long, and ſo neceſſary a War; and hope, by the many Advantages that Your Majeſty aſſures us You have obtained for Your Subjects, to retrieve our Loſſes, and to forget the Burden of the War, ſince we are perſuaded that Your Majeſty has happily accompliſh'd the End You propoſed.

We admire Your Majeſty's Wiſdom, as well as Goodneſs, in ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and keeping a perfect Friendſhip with the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

We apprehend, that the fixing the Succeſſion of the Crown in that Royal Family, is the ſureſt Means to quiet the Poſſeſſion of it againſt the Contrivances of Your Majeſty's Enemies at home and abroad: This will deſpel all Jealouſies, compoſe Party Rage, abate the Inſolence, and diſappoint the growing Hopes of thoſe, who endeavour to ſeparate Your Majeſty's Intereſt from that of the Houſe of Hanover, and to withdraw the Duty and Affections of Your Subjects from Your Majeſty and Your Lawful Succeſſors.

Our moſt hearty Prayers for the long Continuance of Your Majeſty's Life, are the leaſt Return we can make, Your Majeſty's Endeavours to preſerve the Church of England, as by Law-Eſtabliſh'd, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law limited.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Stockholm, May 31. N. S. Two Days ago Colonel Wolfraad arrived here, and brought an account, that Count Steinbock had been obliged to ſurrender himſelf and his Men Priſoners of War: Whereupon the Senate immediately propos'd to the Burghers, to contribute One hundred thouſand Crowns for their Ranſom before the Term is expired. They have already paid Eight thouſand for that of the General, and are now employ'd in raiſing the Sums that are neceſſary to redeem the Troops. We have receiv'd advice from Funen, that Twelve thouſand Muſcovites had made a Deſcent there near Helſingfort; but the Inhabitants of that Place having burnt it themſelves, and withdrawn with their Effects, the Muſcovites returned to their Ships, taking with them two Veſſels, one of Holland, and another of Lubeck, that were at Anchor in that Port. Their Fleet having been ſince ſeen off of Borgo, it is thought they deſign for Wibourg. In the mean time the Militia of Funen is aſſembling, and the Squadron of Nine Men of War, that went lately out of Carlſcroon, is expected back in a ſhort time, by which we hope to be in a Condition to hinder that of the Czar from returning. Major General Ecklebadt, who was preſent at the Battle of Gadebuſch, and was afterwards prevented by Sickneſs from going with Count Steinbock into Holſtein, returned hither a few Days ago.

Venice, June 16. N. S. The Magiſtrates of Health hath reduced the Quarentine to be performed by all Veſſels which comes from Morea, and the Venetian Iſlands, to Eight and twenty Days. The Procurator Lorenzo Tiepolo, late Ambaſſador from this Republick to the Court of Rome, is returned hither. Letters from thence bring an account, that the Pope was gone to Caſtel Gondolpho for the recovery of his
